The newsletter for Hughes Bros Ltd.

Welcome to the second edition of Hughes News!

Exciting new developments...

Since the last edition of 'Hughes News' there have been a number of exciting projects that have arisen including:

Blackburn 'Twin Valleys' which is a bathroom only pilot scheme that started in late August.

'Irwell Valleys' which is a kitchen only pilot scheme that is due to start in October.

'Pod' pilot project in Salford is due to start in October which involves installing modular buildings with specialised disabled facilities to existing properties.

There will be a number of exciting opportunities over the next few weeks in the various trades as the projects develop – please keep an eye on the website for further information.

The Offerton site in Stockport will start to run down in the next few weeks due to successful completion approaching, however all staff will transfer to Adswood to help them continue with their excellent progress.

New Website well received

The newly launched website has been extremely well received and has proved very useful for recruitment, and feedback is that it is impressive and informative to applicants and potential new customers.

Invite to House of Commons

Hughes Brothers have been invited to House of Commons for the 'Avanta Awards Ceremony' in October which recognize the best and brightest employers. The prestigious Awards include 'Partner of the Year' and 'Achiever of the Year', and highlight individuals who have achieved significant goals whilst dealing with personal or work difficulties.

Keeping Customers Happy

We have recently received some excellent letters complimenting Hughes Brothers employees for professionalism and quality of work and cleanliness. One particular letter highlights their sincere gratitude for the care and understanding when working with a tenant with severe learning difficulties – Keep up the excellent work!!

Don't keep it under your hat! - remember the Employee Suggestion Scheme, your chance to win £100! Please submit written ideas to Heather in HR
